Gospel Reflection: This time of year is filled with anticipation and waiting! The important questions for us are, "What do we anticipate?" and "How do we await?" Stores are filled with Christmas things. Lights and decorations have sprung up. Christmas music on the radio is another harbinger of the day for which we wait. Our work of preparation is busied with card-sending, party-planning and attending, and gift-shopping. The First Sunday of Advent, the Church's New Year, ushers in a different way of waiting, of heightened anticipation. We Christians don't wait for a what, but for a Whom. And that changes the character of our waiting! If the followers of Christ are vigilant and have lives "blameless in holiness," then when Christ comes they can "stand erect" without fear but with joyful anticipation of their redemption. This is the Whom and what of our waiting! (Living Liturgy, p. 2)

Prayers for the Sick. Please pray for the sick among our families and friends, especially Fran Bernard, Roy Campbell, Patricia Cassidy, Chris Kelly, Suzanne Lafontaine, Priscilla Rowley, and Lorraine Stafford. The names will remain on the list until we are otherwise advised.

Pope's Intentions for the Month of December:
For Pilgrims Of Hope: Let us pray that the coming Church Jubilee Year 2025 strengthens us in our faith; helping us to recognize the Risen Christ in the midst of our lives, transforming us into pilgrims of Christian hope.

Advent: A Grace-Filled Period of Preparation

As we begin the season of Advent, we are reminded that this is a time of preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ. The word "Advent" comes from the Latin word "adventus," meaning "coming" or "arrival." Traditionally, Advent is a period of prayer, penance, and fasting, as we prepare to celebrate the feast of Christmas.

While Advent is often regarded as a joyful season, it is also a time for self-reflection and preparation. The purple color associated with Advent is a reminder of the need for penance and reconciliation. As Pope Francis reminds us, Advent invites us to a commitment to vigilance, looking beyond ourselves, and expanding our minds and hearts to open ourselves up to the needs of others.

There are three senses of Advent that we can reflect on during this season. The first is the historical coming of Jesus Christ, which we celebrate at Christmas. The second is the final coming of Jesus as judge at the end of time. The third is the ongoing coming of Jesus in our daily lives, through the Eucharist, the word of God, and our encounters with others.

So, how can we prepare for Jesus' coming in these three areas of our lives? As you prepare to give your friends and family gifts think of what you can offer to Jesus.

A writer proposed these few ideas.

One way is to set aside time for prayer and adoration. Here in our parish, we do adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament every Wednesday from 8am to 9am. The psalmist gives us the awesome blessing received as adorers of Jesus when he said, "In his presence there is fullness of Joy." Psalm 16:11.

We can also look for opportunities to serve others, particularly those in need. Like the elderly and the homeless. Additionally, we can take time to reflect on our relationships with God and our neighbors. Take your time to discern where you have offended God or your family and friends. Seek for forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation.

As you prepare for Jesus' coming, remember that it's not just about what you do, but also about what He wants to do for you. He wants to give you peace as you adore Him, encounter you in the poor as you serve them, enrich your life with mercy and joy as you confess your sins, and heal your relationships as you forgive others.

Slow down and let Jesus give you the gift of a willing heart to follow Him always.

Blessings: Father Anthony
